LYN PROJECT UPDATE (Loving Your Neighbour)

It's nice to know that the LYN Project is alive and well! An area social worker recently contacted our LYN personnel with a request for help to move a young immigrant mother and her two children from one living space to another. On Saturday, Oct. 1st, four trucks appeared at Acadia Place, and after two loads a grateful family was settled into their new lodgings. Kudos to our St. Peter's parishioners for lending a hand!

Altar Flowers at St Peter's

Each Sunday at St Peter's, we are treated to beautiful arrangements of flowers. These arrangements are created by the flower committee to the glory of God, and as gifts for shut-ins and the sick. To participate in this offering by dedicating flowers on a specific Sunday in memory of a loved one, in thanksgiving for blessings you have received or to mark special events in your life. If you would like to make a dedication of flowers on a particular Sunday, please contact Pam Hodgson at 403-720-2145, or fill out a flower dedication form and place it in her box (#112). Donations towards the flowers may be made using the pink flower envelopes, which may be placed in the offering plate or given to Avril at the office. (Please note: we are no longer using the flower calendar.)

Dedication Forms and pink flower envelopes may be found on the cupboard by the welcome table and main office doors. The suggested minimum amount for the altar flower donation is $50.00. If you are feeling a bit more generous, please feel free to give more. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
