LYN PROJECT UPDATE
(Loving Your Neighbour)

It's nice to know that the LYN Project is alive and well! An area social worker recently contacted our LYN personnel with a request for help to move a young immigrant mother and her two children from one living space to another. On Saturday, Oct. 1st, four trucks appeared at Acadia Place, and after two loads a grateful family was settled into their new lodgings. Kudos to our St. Peter's parishioners for lending a hand!

DATES TO REMEMBER:

World Music Sunday Potluck: Join us today, October 23rd for our first World Music Sunday. We'll be starting our journey around the world relatively close to home, with the sounds and tastes of colonial North America. What do you like to eat at harvest time? This is your chance to share one of your fall favorites with the community. Please feel welcome to join us even if you have not brought a dish to share.

Our next community dinner is October 24; All are welcome! Hosted by Corinne McLean and team; to help, contact Corinne at 403-255-7136.

The next monthly Beverly Care Home service is October 26th at 10:30 am. Please call Joan Siddall at 403-800-1926 if you are able to help.

It is our major fundraiser for the year and a family event, complete with handicrafts, jams and preserves, baking, books and CD's, white elephant table and children's games and toys. There is also a dining room serving hot lunches. Come join us for a great day of fellowship and community!

Please do not price items but label them e.g. butter tarts, lemon squares, etc. DON'T FORGET TO LABEL ANY ITEMS WITH NUTS. If possible, please have your baking at the church by Fri evening, Oct 28th, to enable us to price items and arrange the table before the sale.

We are still accepting nominations for this year's dedication! Forms are available at the back of the church.

On October 30 Guest violinist Katrina Soltice will join us for the 10:00 am service. As a prelude she will offer the first movement of the Camille Saint-Saens Violin Concerto number 3 in b minor.
