Remembrance Day Service
25th Sunday after Pentecost
November 6th, 2016
10:00 am

St. Peter's Anglican Church
903-75th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta 403-252-0393

Welcome to our service of Holy Communion. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Anglican Church, we invite you to simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship.

Today's service begins with an Act of Remembrance. We also continue our reflections upon the mission of God, and our role in God's mission.

Call to Silence

As today's service begins, a gong will sound, calling us to stillness before God.

Processional Hymn: Abide with Me

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see—
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's pow'r?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies;
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. And also with you.

Let us begin our time of worship with a moment of remembrance.

We remember fallen soldiers, and the sacrifice they made for the sake of others.

Let us begin our time of worship with a moment of thanksgiving.

We thank God for brave men and women that have given their lives so that we may worship without fear.

Let us begin our time of worship with a moment of silence; for a moment is the least we can do for those that gave their eternity.

God of all,

we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer.

Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them,

and in your loving wisdom and almighty power,

work in them the good purpose of your perfect will;

through Jesus Christ our Lord,

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Children's Time

The children are now invited to leave the service for a time of learning and fun, and will return for communion. They can be picked up after the service from their classroom downstairs. Children are also always welcome in our service. There are colouring packs and soft blocks at the back, as well as a rug area on which the children may play.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

A Reading from Haggai 1:15b-2:9

In the second year of King Darius, 1 in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the prophet Haggai, saying: Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory?

How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the Lord; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord; work, for I am with you, says the Lord of hosts, according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear. For thus says the Lord of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendour, says the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the Lord of hosts. The latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the Lord of hosts.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145

A Reading from 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not re-member that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia

All stand and turn to face the Gospel

The Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked him a question, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her." Jesus said to them, "Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive."

The Gospel of Christ. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Prayers of the People

Prayer of Commitment

God of constant love, you have guided your people in all times and ages. May we who offer you our praise today always be ready to follow where you lead; we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

All stand

We are fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God, through Christ our Lord, who came and preached peace to those who were far off and those who were near.

Ephesians 2.19,17

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

Offertory Hymn: #519 The Lord's My Shepherd

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

The Prayer over the Gifts

Gracious God, your word to us is food indeed. Receive all we offer you this day, and let your loving-kindness be our comfort, for the sake of Jesus Christ, your living Word. Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Many prefer to stand for this prayer

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to God

it is right to give our thanks and praise.

Generous God, giver of the gift of life; Yours is the voice that calls to your people, calling us to remember your presence, to listen to your wisdom.

Yours are the arms that reach out to your people, embracing us with your forgiveness, encircling us with your protection. Yours is the Spirit that fills your people, infusing us with courage, and making us in your image. Your mission towards us never ends and your hopes for us are beyond our deepest yearnings.

Therefore, with apostles and prophets, with holy women and men of every age, with people of faith both near and far, we join our voices to sing your praise:

Sanctus

#735 Blue Book, Schubert

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of Power and might Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of Power and might,
 heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

From the depths of your yearnings for us you sent your Son to live our life amongst us. In trust and love Jesus lived your mission for him, bringing to us good news of new life and the promise of your unfailing goodness.

On the night before he died, Jesus shared a meal with his friends, and while at table he took the bread, gave you thanks, broke it, and shared it with them, saying: 'This is my body, given for you.'

Likewise after supper he took the cup, gave you thanks, and shared it with them, saying, 'This is my blood, shed for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

Generous God, Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, and upon these gifts, that this holy meal, filled with the presence of Christ, may be for us sustenance for the mission you give us.

In the sharing of this bread and wine may we be empowered to share the gift of the gospel. In the knowledge of Christ's giving of himself for us, may we look beyond ourselves to the needs of your creation.

As your mission towards us never ends, so may our life be one of joyful mission to others, for you are our God, our joy, our hope.

Blessing and honour, glory and power, are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The gifts of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

All are welcome to join us at the Lord's Table. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please cross your arms. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request. If you desire personal prayer, a prayer team is available in the Chapel during communion and after the service.

Communion Music: Music Offered by the St. Peter's Mixed ChoirPrayers After CommunionStanding*

Living God, in the eucharist you fill us with new hope. May the power of your love, which we have known in word and sacrament, continue your saving work among us, and bring us to the joy you promise. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more that we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.
